Dear Mrs Philips

The council took seven weeks to formulate a response as to 'whether the publication of the the 2018-based household projections have any implications for the submitted plan in respect of Objectively Assessed Need (OAN) for housing, the housing requirement or Green Belt release (ED111)'. I have been given three weeks to form a response because my details were not 'included in the database for the mail out of the notification of this consultation'. This is not an adequate amount of time and not in proportion to the time the council had.

For a fair consultation process to take place there should be an attempt to level the field between the council and other interested parties (such as estate agents and property developers with large resources) and individuals. There should certainly be more time given for individuals to respond.

I do not think this consultation is adequate or fair.

Yours sincerely

Elizabeth Harbott (MA)
